APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS FOR ORIGINAL LAW ENFORCEMENT INSTRUCTOR CERTIFICATION

Each type of certification (General, Provisional or Standard) requires specific data to be submitted. An outline of the requirements for each type of certification is presented below. Complete ONLY the requirements that pertain to the type of certification you seek.

Resumes, official documents, and copies of official school transcripts shall be attached to the application. Be sure that the name on any documents sent is the same as the name you used on the application form, or has an explanation i.e.; maiden. Include as much background information and any documents you determine necessary to complete the application package. All applications must have completed lesson plans attached for the areas to be taught, meeting the Basic Training objectives as required.

DISOUALIFIERS FOR INSTRUCTOR CERTIFICATES: You may neither apply nor a department or law enforcement agency may submit a law enforcement instructor application if the applicant: Has been convicted of any felony crime, Has been found not guilty of a felony crime by reason of mental disease or defect pursuant to Section 53a-13 (CGS), or Has been convicted of a violation of Subsection (c) of Section 21a-279 (CGS); or Has been found to have falsified any document in order to obtain or renew his or her instructor certificate; or Has been found to have had his or her law enforcement certificate cancelled or revoked by another jurisdiction on grounds which would authorize cancellation or revocation under the provisions of Subsection 7-294d(c)(2) (CGS); or Has been found by a law enforcement unit, pursuant to procedures established by such unit, to have committed any act that would constitute Tampering With or Fabricating Physical Evidence in violation of 53a-155 (CGS), Perjury in violation of 53a-156 (CGS) or False Statement in the 2nd degree in violation of 53a-157b (CGS).

All inquiries should be addressed to:

GENERAL CERTIFICATES

General Certificates are for civilian instructor personnel invited by a department to instruct in specific, specialized areas (such as someone who conducts computer training). The applicant shall present any evidence of meeting the following requirements in addition to meeting the general conditions for certification (Council reg 7-294e-12(a)):

A Baccalaureate degree, with a major or concentration of courses in the discipline/area to be taught.

POST will consider certification from other accrediting bodies under this category, such as a local university or professional licensing bodies. GENERAL certificates are valid for one (1) year and may be renewed, as long as instruction was performed in the area of certification during the certification period to Connecticut police officers.

Complete all sections on the application form except area three (3) which must be signed by the Chief Executive Officer or the agency Director or Commanding Officer of the law enforcement units Training Division or Training Academy which seeks to use your services.

PROVISIONAL CERTIFICATES - LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICER

Police Officer applicants must have at least three (3) years experience in the subject area to be instructed. They may be experts or specialists in their respective fields, but who have not yet satisfactorily completed an approved instructor development or method of instruction course. POST may accept/grant provisional certification to an individual who has documented expertise in an area of instruction (i.e. may include the completion of specialized and/or advanced training; acceptance as an "expert" by court of law, association, society, or other recognized body); and/or experience in the subject area.

Complete all sections of the application form except area three (3) which must be signed by your Chief of Police or Chief Executive Officer.

STANDARD CERTIFICATES

Applicants must have at least three (3) years experience in the subject area to be instructed; recommendation of their Chief Executive Officer; training in the area of, or a concentration of course work in the discipline to be taught; and satisfactory completion of an instructor development or method of instruction course or a recognized equivalent thereof.

Complete all sections of the application form except area three (3) which must be signed by your Chief of Police or Chief Executive Officer.

RENEWAL APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS FOR LAW ENFORCEMENT INSTRUCTOR CERTIFICATION

REGULATIONS OF THE POLICE OFFICER STANDARDS AND TRAINING COUNCIL REQUIRE THE FOLLOWING IN ORDER TO RENEW AN INSTRUCTOR CERTIFICATION

The holder of a certificate shall make application for renewal of said certificate 60 days prior to its expiration date. Certificates will remain in effect for a period not to exceed three years.

The application process for renewal of the certificate shall be the same as for the holder's original application for certification except that applicants shall be required to verify that they have:

- •taught at least one class per year in each area in which they have held law enforcement instructor certification since obtaining certification unless the subject area, for which recertification is being sought, is approved by the council for recertification on a triennial basis.
- •updated their training materials to reflect advances in each area of specialization and maintain good standing as law enforcement instructors and, if applicable, as police officers in the State of Connecticut.

PROVISIONAL CERTIFICATES

Provisional Certificates shall not be renewed unless extended by the council. Holders of Provisional Certificates shall meet the general and specific conditions established under Subsection 7-294e-12, Standard Certification, during the three years of their provisional certification.
